EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Miss Towner and Mr. Pierce Married at Bride's Home Today.

Miss Kent Brings Guests Together to Meet Her Bridesmaids. Other Parties.

The marriage of Miss Leta E. Towner, daughter of Representative and Mrs. Towner of Iowa, and Mr. Jerry Albert Pierce of Denver, Col., took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the apartment of the bride's parents in the Mendota. The event was a very quiet one, with only the members of the family present. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are leaving this afternoon for the south for a brief wedding trip, and will be at home on a ranch near Meeker, Col., after the 15th of April. Rev. Mr. Dunlap performed the marriage ceremony, and the bride wore her traveling clothes, a stylish tailored costume of dark blue serge and silk, and a black straw hat that had a crown of dark blue satin and a touch of green in the trimming. Dr. Stenhouse of the navy was best man.

Miss Elizabeth Sherman Kent, bride-to-be of Friday next, entertained today at the home of her parents, Representative and Mrs. William Kent of California at a buffet luncheon for fifty guests in compliment to her maid of honor, Miss Mary Ormsby of Ross, Cal., and her bridesmaids, Miss Margaret York of New Bedford, Mass., and Miss Gabriel Prout of Nutley, N. J., former classmates at Westover, Conn., who are guests at the Kent home until after the wedding.

A buffet table adorned with pink sweet peas and lilies of the valley was arranged in the dining room and the guests sat about small tables placed in convenient space while the meal was served. Moving pictures of the scene as it progressed were made.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gibson are giving a dinner tonight for a few of their most intimate friends to celebrate the sixth anniversary of their wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson have just taken a cottage at Newport for the coming season and expect to go there early in the spring.

Washington's birthday was celebrated at the Shuman last night in an interesting way. Dancing began about 10:30.

Mrs. Ray Middaugh entertained in compliment to Representative and Mrs. Frank O'Hare and Miss Bernice Cartledge of Philadelphia, a house guest of the hostess. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. O. Raymond Evans, Judge and Mrs. Fenton Booth, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bergling, Miss Gladys Middaugh, Mrs. Dudley Shreve, James Faye and W. W. Jones.

Capt. J. P. Sellesman and family are here on a visit to his brother at 337 C street.

Mrs. Marshall Field gave a luncheon today, when Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dallas, Mrs. W. H. Donner, Mrs. Harry C. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Druce, Mr. G. H. H. Norris, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Edmunds, all of Philadelphia, with Mr. and Mrs. Stokowski and a number of Washington friends of the hostess.

Mr. J. Horner Davis and son James E. Davis were visiting Judge Geo. W. Atkinson, a few days last week. They will return to their home in Clarksville, W. Va., tonight.

Mrs. Thomas Sterling, wife of the senator from South Dakota, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given today by Mrs. Samuel Burleigh Milton. Red tulips were used on the table, and the decorations were carried out in red.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Evans of 720 4th street southeast, life-long residents of Washington, are to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage at their home tomorrow. The marriage took place February 24, 1865, just after the return of Mr. Evans from the civil war, where he served in Hancock's and McClellan's divisions.

Mr. Evans is seventy-five and his wife seventy-one years of age. In his early youth Mr. Evans served as a cabin boy on the frigate Constitution. During the civil war he transferred to the army. At present he is employed in the navy yard.

Four generations are to be represented. Mr. and Mrs. Evans have nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Their four surviving children, Lizzie A., James A., W. E. and George T. Evans, planned the celebration. Members of Lincoln Post, the Ladies Auxiliary and other G. A. R. organizations are to assist.

Mrs. Clement Flagler entertained at luncheon and cards today for Mrs. Fuller and Mr. Eames. Other guests were Mrs. Abraham Lott, Mrs. Kison, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Pugh, Mrs. Charles Lowndes, Mrs. Lloyd Lowndes, Mrs. Morris W. Chubb, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Hall. The decorations were in jonquils and white lilies.

The marriage of Miss Florence Herman, daughter of Mrs. B. Herman, and Mr. Sidney West, both of this city, took place last evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride, 1370 Kenyon street. Rev. Dr. Louis Stern of the Eighth Street Temple performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of soft flesh color satin, with crystal trimmings, a long tulle veil in cap effect, trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a shoe bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. Mr. Emil West was best man for his brother, and Miss Leah Herman, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore yellow pussy willow tulle and carried daisies and yellow roses. Mrs. B. Herman, mother of the bride, wore black satin and jet. The ceremony was followed by a family dinner and reception for the friends in attendance. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. Hamburger, Mr. Freundlich, Mr. Heyn and the Misses Heyn of Baltimore and Mr. Rosenbaum of Boston. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. West left for an extended trip to Palm Beach and Havana, and upon their return will reside in this city.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan entertained at dinner last night and afterward had other guests to come in to hear Mrs. Zeisler play. They will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of the special representative of Uruguay, Dr. Blanco, who arrived in this country Saturday.

Senator and Mrs. Willard Saulsbury entertained at dinner last night Senator and Mrs. Warren, Senator and Mrs. McLean, Representative and Mrs. John Jacob Rogers, Representative and Mrs. James R. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ford of Chestnut Hill, Pa.; Mrs. Albert L. Niblack, Mrs. Beckwith, Miss Helen Patten, Dr. Bispham, Mr. George Boyd Cochran and Lieut. Holcombe.

A charming dance was given by the R. B. R.'s at the Savoy last night. The parlors were tastefully decorated with red, white and blue garlands, and American flags. Dance programs bore the club's initials, and favors consisted of liberty caps for the girls and tricorn hats for boys. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Mrs. Terence Sweeney and Mrs. T. K. O'Brien presided.

SOCIETY LEADERS ATTEND BLIND HOME RECEPTION

School Department Is Thrown Open for Inspection of the Guests.

Many prominent society leaders and other clubwomen of Washington attended the reception at the Home for the Blind, 3050 R street, yesterday afternoon, when the school-home department for blind children was thrown open for inspection.

This ward has been established through the efforts of the Sunshine and Community Society, of which Mrs. Ella S. Knight is president. A feature of the entertainment was the singing of a group of children. Refreshments were served.

Those who assisted Mrs. Knight in receiving, arranging decorations and serving were Mrs. Richard Sylvester, president of the Aid Association for the Blind; Mrs. P. P. Millet, Mrs. Josephine Jacobs, Mrs. Charles Keyser, president of Friends of the Blind, Mrs. Sanford Taylor, president of Hospital branch; Mrs. Walker Fowler, Mrs. R. Mackahan, W. A. Kelsey, Miss Helen Grandfield, Miss Nevins, Mrs. Charles McGee, Mrs. E. Cutting, Mrs. T. L. Lynch, Mrs. S. W. Morris, Mrs. Bernard Lane, president of the Circle Helping Hand; Mrs. L. L. Morrill, Mrs. G. Hesse, Mrs. J. E. Briggs, Mrs. E. B. Jones and Mrs. Charles P. Grandfield.

A handsome memorial will soon be erected over the grave of Gen. Mordecai Girt, one of the most noted Marylanders in the revolutionary war, by the Sons of the American Revolution.
